By C. M. Payne "S'Matter, Pop?" NOW YOU BE REAL ATTENTION IS HERE QUIET TILL I COME KI-YI-YI POP. CALLED TO ONE, ALKALI WELL KI-YI. DING

SMATTER BACK AN GET YA IKE WHO IS SEEN ENTERING S'MATTER AN DONT YA DARE ON THE LEFT. THE FINISH DING S'MATTER KI.YI. OF THIS PEACEFUL SCENE IS AT HAND.

HERE, THERE AND

HIS compound of our own is greatly inferior to all others, but I should like to sell it to you because it brings If We Should Tell the Truthas an actor; but I made a big hit when I was playing the silly boob be-cause the part just fit me.

We do not intend, ladies and gentlemen, to keep the promises we make during this campaign, but in order to get your votes we must impress you with the idea that it is for you, and not ourselves, that we are working.

I know it was a five-dollar bill you gave me, but after handing out the tickets I always hesitate and give the purchaser an opportunity to walk away and leave the change. I cannot possibly win your case, and am acting as your attorney only because business is a little dull and (#() I need the money.

I have used that speech in proposing to several girls, but you are the first one to believe it.

"Will the business world's Millennium ever come?" 'Yes. When pay day is as frequent as the boss's grouch."

IM." inquired Mr. Riley, glancing up over the door of the post-office, according to the Youth's Companion, "what is the meanin' of thim letters, MDCCCXCVIII?" "They mean eighteen hundred an' ninety-"Tim, don't it athrike you that they're carryin this spellin' reform entoirely too far?"

"Does he always snore as loudly as that?" "Oh, dear, no. Only when he's asleep."

UGGINS has made a pile of money, and now he's trying to get into society, but the question of manners comes up. Has he got any?" queried Bolivar. "Muggins? Manners?" was the vehement re-ply, according to Harper's Weekly, "Well, I should say not. Why, that man wouldn't give up his seat in a dentist's chair to a lady.

"You say you have three brothers and a half. How do you make medicine. In due time he entered and that out!" "One is a half-brother."

Making the Parson Useful. "Hubbs," she remarked premulously, "you love PEW days ago a little boy who lives on

The doctor received also question and this

"I go to the Corpetian thorch."

Yes. I have the poster. Better send for him. He is the lest mint to raise money that West, after a hegist has touched him for a dime held tell you he

"More than life itself," he declared passion-

A PEW days ago a little boy who lives on the west side anallowed a coin, and his frantic mother immediately called the family doctor. When he arrived the mother was in hysteries thinking her and was about to die.

The physician looked the smiling volumeta over and in a science volve washed:

"More than life itself," he declared passion-tell, "And no personal defect in me would ever cause your love to lesson, would it, dearwat?"

He agreed that such was the case.

"On, seven one," she cried demursty, "I have just one confastion to make! I—I—my teeth—try teeth age false?" my teeth are-false!"

"Thank goodness" he responded ferently, wealth to which we are both bound by plane. And with that remark he doffed his wig-

'gave a little hisper to an acquaintance.

By Ferd G. Long G-o-o-d N-i-g-h-t!

WAITER! FETCH THAT ORDER AND

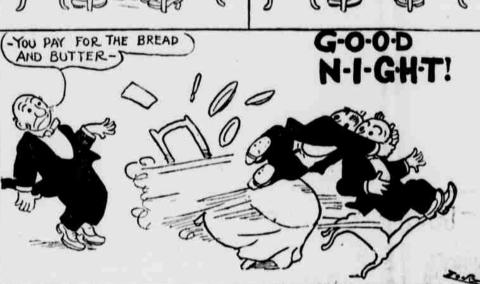

BE SURE AND BRING PLENTY OF

THIS COST OF LIVING TALK 15)
ALL BUNK! YOU DON'T HAVE TO FILL UP ON ALL THIS HIGH PRICED STUFF! I'LL SHOW YOU HOW TO BEAT THE GAME - I'LL JUST ORDER -AND-author of "Flower of the North," bicycled at sixteen By Sophie Irene Loch.

AMES OLIVER CURWOOD, Compright, 1912, by The Press Publishing Co.

with horse and wagon selling a patent was graduated from the University of Michigan. He has been to Hudson's and a Bay, to the Arctic and to the Barren Lands, has writen seven books, many short stories and countless novels -and is just past thirty!

Theodore Dreiser says he is through with the "Sister Carrie" and "Jennie

The Folks That

Write Our Books

stone maker to draw designs for the the thing artistic."

tombstones and was dismissed after | Vanity did not begin in Paris and it shade, you had better let it alone.

lonely ploncer's cabin before our people learned the uses of ink, and the supreme fitness of this lies in the fact | as for weightier reasons, to sit at the head of the table in that common- on America by going up in an aero-

Rene Bazin, whose stories of provincial life in France have found much Boston fans who have come hither Hagenback. favor as translated for American read- claiming "four games in a row" have ers, was born in Angers in 1853 was a delicate boy and spent most of to tell it to the marines. his early years on an Angevin farm. ward novel writing by his feeling that

HERSELF; to her resulting disadvan

North," bleyeled at sixteen through every State in the South. In his next year be travelled a thousand miles I be an extremist and put wear "any old thing" in opposition in the South. In his next year be leader of fashion, but a philoso-every folde and fancy that producers By Sophie Irene Lock.

While one can't be an extremist and just wear "any old thing" in opposition to fashion, yet the woman beautiful who leader of fashion, but a philoso-every folde and fancy that producers By Sophie Irene Lock.

While one can't be an extremist and just wear "any old thing" in opposition to fashion, yet the woman beautiful who leader of fashion, but a philoso-every folde and fancy that producers with the "Sister Carrie" and "Jennie Erhardt" type of novel. His next book may suggest something from his recent travelling experiences in England dialy.

Yoshio Mark'no, the Japanese artist, author of "The Japanese artist, author of "The Japanese Artist in Longian, and the distribution and general makendon," tells with Oriental Joy how he was at one time employed by a tombout stone maker to draw designs for the stone make Wantty did not begin in Paris and it shade, you had better let it alone.

The months because he let his image does not end there. It is ever present and, mark you, it is not always money the world over. Yet very often the most that produces the well dressed woman delight. The ginnes all the ginnes which delight. The present are so much more expressive than any mark followed the fashions the least, and the trick is done. There is much more expressive than any words. Springs. Va., is a busy one. She has in truth she creates ner own style, and, woman with a very small income, who

While one can't be an extremist and chance followed the fashlons the least, and the trick is done. There is many a words, her attention one moment in the new times without number, we look with awe knows her needs 80 Will-L that she chief Executive of a State in which or the indy of the house, who would ap- TO LOOK WELL FOLLOW THE the telling of tales brightened the pear to the best advantage very, very NEED OF SELF RATHER THAN hunter's camp-fire and cheered the often knows the fashion better than THE DICTATES OF FASHION.

that you are yourself the best of story tellers and entitled, for your excellence in this particular, as well as for weightler reasons, to sit at the

He an exceptionally good chance to-day Who's "covering" the world series it be addressed "Maste" or Mr. " for the Balkuns?

As he grew up he studied and practise! A quick dive and a long swim. Of all towns 'neath the sky to bar a professorship of criminal law in the would bring Prince Pignatelli dieras mosty faces from church - Pittsburght

> Would it not be a good idea, for But even Edison can't make a dead the benefit of visiting Bostonians Bull Moose "go."

Betty Vincent's Advice

B ... sely obwant a thing done do it yourself; if A person giving advice to young men might well modify the above remark as follows: "If you want the mouth than by stroke of pen-

Be brave and ask her-don't write!

"M. F." writes: "A young man who paid me a good deal of attention comes back from his vacation and can talk of nothing but another young lady. What can I do?"

Nothing. After all, the man wasn't engaged to you.

Will Not Work.

because she says she won't do housework. But I can't afford to hire a maid. Don't you think she's unrea-

I think that she doesn't really care for you.

"A. D." writes: "I am six years older than the woman I want to marry, and she thinks the difference in age will affect our happiness. Do you agree with her?" No, not in the case of such a com-

Shenandoah

A Civil War Romance of Sheridan's Ride

By Henry Tyrrell (Founded on Bronson Howard's Great Play)

(Copyright, 1912, br G. P. Putnam's Sone.) take active command of a large army SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTER. In the field. Copyright, 1912, by G. P. Putnam's Sons.)

SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTER.

Korchival West to young leatenant in the hon Army during the civil way) loves Gertrude illingham, a Nouthern girl. Gertrude's brother hob West's chann to in the Confederate Army rol is in ione with West a sister. Mandelm, tien, flaverill. Bub's former guardian, is a Union flice who has recently married a young said directive wife and who has discovered Frank, its dissolute som by a former marriage. Frank,
its dissolute som by a former marriage. Frank,
order another name, has since enlisted. West, order another name, has since enlisted.
West,
order another have, has since enlisted.
See alverge at betilt to young Mrs. Haveril, fights deal with Edward Theoreton, a Confederate source cervice man. The civil war is at its hight, the chief interest centring around the thousandoan Valley and the South's offices to had the value against the Union forces. There stonesual Jackson wine reposited victories and menace the city of Washington.

Valley, I suppose to join in the de-fense of Richmond. You know what that means, under Jackson—this is that means, under Jackson—this is the first moment I have found to write to you since you decided to quit for home. I know what you have passed through, but do you know how it came about that you got through as luckily as you did? Probably not. Now, I will tell you. It was all very well for the Rich-mond Department to send you in cer-tain company by way of Baltimore but, when it came to the pinch at Harper's Ferry, influence at Washthirton had to be brought to bear. Whose influence? Gen. Buckthorn's. den. Buckthorn must have acted at the prompting of some other Federal officer, presumably Coi. H. And now did our dear Colonel happen to be so alert in behalf of a couple of Southern women travelling at their own risk? Gestrude, Kerchival W. is-or was in Washington either on sick leave or on some confidential mission. He must have moved heaven and earth. and even strained a point or two of discipline, for your sake. I don't know the exact circumstances, but I do know old Kerchival, God bless him he can't help it if he is a Yank. Now, you know what he did for the unly look it must have taken for him at Washington when I tell you that your dangerous travelling com-panion took advantage of the situa-tion to wheedle the Federal guard at Herryville into making an exonly too well, and who is now back again in the Confederate service.

What is to some of it all I don't know. But, Sis, he careful-keep this closely to yourself, and never formet it. When you will next hear from me. and what you will hear, no mortal can predict-except that I shall be found in the line of duty. May heaven bless and keep us all is the reread and pondered and cried over this "Great Godi Ed Thornton - I letter and bissed it furtively as if in thought I knew you!" exclaimed the concealment from her very self, the ave young man addressel, peering into the army corps of McCledan, having en-insolent, scarred face of his questioner, countered the defensive Confederate "And I presume you know me. 45. The former is literally correct, but the latter will probably guit him best.

"H. N." writes: "A young man tells me ne loves me and a most attentive when we are alone. But whenever another stri is present to transferts lite attentions to the restrictions to the transferts lite attentions to the restrictions to the restrictions to the restrictions and the restrictions are restricted the defensive Confederate "And I presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish decrive battle f Fair Oaks, otherwise called Seven Pines, and were lined up der a Confederate uniform, and inside along the Chickschominy stream, almost with that Union belt on under the country of the presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish nonative stream, almost with that Union belt on under the country of the presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish nonative stream, almost with that Union belt on under the country of the presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish nonative stream, almost with that Union belt on under the country of the presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish of the presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish of the presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish of the presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish of the presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish of the presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish of the presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish of the presume you know me. 45.

"It know you're in a pretty ticklish of the presume you know me. 45.

me he loves me and a most attentive when we are alone. But whenever any other siri is present to transfers his attentions to her. Do you think he really cares for me?"

I very much doose it.

Gen. McClellan, on the threshold of his

Gen. McClellan, on the threshold of his grand opportunity at the gates of Riobmond, opened his assault upon Lee's lines of defense at lieuver Dam, near Mechanicsville, on the Chickahominy. It was the first of the Seven Days' Bettles, soon to go into history.

There was fierre fighting every day that week—at Gaines's Mill, Savage Station, Glendale, all through the dark and desolate White Oak Swamp and along the sluggish, noisome Chickahominy, Jackson, in his old-time fighting form again, in the field with Lee, Stuart and Longstreet, strove to make up for lost time, and did his full share

CHAPTER X.

(Continued.)

Grapeoine Telegraph.

RS. HAVERILL and Gertrude, as has been intimated, maintained a practically continuous correspondence. Gertrude wrote regularly to beer Confederate brother, Robert Rillingham. Madeline West, on the other seekers, in a non-partisan way, which also was quite different from sisterly. Of course, Hob wrote both the girls, and it would have been highly embarrassing if he had expected by the epistles mixed. Madeline answered the copions letters and inquiries of her brother, Kerchivai West, as beat she could.

Jenny Huckthorn was heard to remark that Capt. Heartseave's pen was mightler than his sword, so there must have been some epistolary interchange have been some e

There, on a bed of juniper boughs, lay gamping and choking a Conferedate soldier with a ghacily bullet-hole in his forchead and the stamp of death on his livid face. An elderly, gray-haired man, evidently a surgeon, knelt on the ground and made feeble efforts to minister to the comfort of the dying one, while his own teeth chattered and his hands shock with ague.

"Dat's Doctor Ellingham," the negro whispered," and he's one of de richest men in Charleston, when he's home. But we ain't got no money now, and here's poor Sam Pinckney shot—I reckon de Yanks have done for him, sho'. De Doctor's a little bit out of his hald, too, on 'count of de fever, but he reckoned he'd stick to Sam, an' of cou'se I sticks to de Doctor.

de Doctor. "Pete," said Dr. Eilingham, in his dazed way, "you might ask the sentle-man if he has anything besides water in his canteen." The young man drew a small wicker flask from his pocket and handed it over. The surgeon reached out a chakeling hand, then said: "You had better give him a little—you are steadler than I am."

Here the wounded man made a sound as if choking.
"Methy

as if choking ... Mebbe it's phierm is his throat." said the faithful old slave. He poked a black finger into the poor fellow's mouth and pulled out a gold of tobacce, that was shot. Then a small quantity of liquor was poured between the pallid lips, but the case seemed indeless.

At that instant loud values were heart outside and then a Confidentic captain and two voldiers rushed acts the casta. Ah, here they are should the cap-tain. Major Ellipshim, I've been searching for you averywhere. Too shouldn't have left the ambulance in your condition. Pete, you big't scoun-dred, is that the way via take care of your master? "I am slad you have come, Captis Thornton," said for billegium, feebige "Here is Sam Pinckney, in very bads abapie." heaven bless and keep us all it the constant prayer of your errors captain, starting at the toning stranger captain, starting at the toning stranger brother. Boll who had preferred the flash and paying While Gentrude Ellingham read and no attention to the wounded man.

While Gentrude Ellingham read and no attention to the wounded man. "And whom have we here?" asked the by persons too lazy to say "telephone."

This caused more tears, and in a trembling "Thank a considerate "Oll, descent to it as prints as that?"

And with

- --Mutual Revelations.

The din of their working belts still rang in their wars for it was only the second day of their morned late. Supermely happen, and my dead and although with one another, and my doubt had obscured the vista of their little.

Proof Positive.

Proof Positive.

"Supermely for it was for it was only the second day of their morned late. Supermely happen, and less were well although their mind supposing. Am 1?"

"Never mind supposing. Am 1?"

"Never mind supposing. Am 1?"

"Supposing I said "not"

"Supposing I said "not"

"There! I knew I wasn't."—Lincolnout's.

When It Is Folly "Follow the Fashion"

Meredita Nicholson dedicated "The need.

Siege of the Seven Suitors," one of his if you and I and all of us, would but her to look as ATTHACTIVE and please recent books, to Gov. Marshall of in-follow the dictates of this woman who ing as possible. To be plain, the world diana, now on the Democratic national has given twenty-five years of study it MANDS it. Yet the extremist is pher. For, even in her particular line, she cries aloud with the ancient SocraTHINK we are.

tes, "Know thyseif." She says:
"People who are woman in the world, and that her taste woman in the world, and that her taste padly dressed, as a is daily growing more discriminate, yet usual thing, study the tidea of imitating and copying sothe so-called pre- called styles is a thing that makes or ailing fashion more mars appearance more than anything

And, mark you, it is not always money lady who reads the most fervent letter house she is building and the next mo- and admiration, saying, "She certainly appears more HAPPILY dressed than ment on the final chapters of "Cease has a distinct style of her own" And many of her more fortunate sisters Firing," the civil war novel which will there you are in reality, she creates of means, presently follow "The Long Reil." that style to suit her PARTICULAR No one will rainsay that every woman Meredita Nicholson desileated "The need. owes it to herself and to force about ticket with Gov. Wilson. "It was or- to the matter of woman and her dress easily RECOGNIZED To dress well dered," wrote the author to his friend we would indeed profit thereby. Thus, is merely a habit of knowing one's girl to marry me, but she has refused a girl to marry me, but she has refused a profit of the shop girl, or my sister of the office, need. Thus:

Pointed Paragraphs.

Doubtless the Hon. Joseph Dixon now realizes that the job was one for paratively slight difference.